Partnering with PRB...

...differs from any other alliance between CPA's or law firms and financial service resources. PRB focuses on specific client needs and forms its strategic teams accordingly. We do not want to be all things to your firm or your clients, just the right thing.

As a leader in your field, as we are in ours, you need a focused, reliable provider who understands that your clients deserve a serious commitment to finding the very best strategies in today's fast-paced world.

We are sure you will find "partnering" with PRB to be a genuine plus, from our clear communications, to our very careful, discreet approach to service. Your clients will appreciate our market intelligence.

Price Raffel & Browne, LLC is the ideal complement to, but would not be affiliated with, accountants, attorneys and brokers for Insurance, Benefits, Pensions and Financial Strategies.

Bettering a client's quality of life
is the ultimate
financial service.
