Partnering with PRB...

...differs from any other alliance between CPA's or law firms and financial service resources. PRB focuses on specific financial sectors and forms its strategic teams accordingly. We do not want to be all things to your firm or your clients, just the right thing.

As a leader in your field, as we are in ours, you need a focused, reliable provider who understands that your clients deserve a serious commitment to finding the very best solutions in today's information-driven financial world.

We are sure you will find "partnering" with PRB to be a genuine enhancement in your clients' eyes, from our clear communications, to our very careful, discreet approach to service. Your clients will appreciate our market intelligence.

Price Raffel & Browne is the ideal complement to attorneys, accountants and brokers for Pensions, Benefits, Insurance and Financial Strategies.

Bettering a client's quality of life is the ultimate financial service.

PENSIONS:

PRB is responsible for thousands of retirement plans, for employees of some of the nation's leading corporations.

We know the pension market well and have the strength that comes with profound, specialized experience.

BENEFITS:

We create employee benefit programs for many of these same corporate customers and also for individual clients with whom we shop for the best options available...and deliver them.

INSURANCE:

Insurance is not what it used to be . The flexibilities, the options, the costs, and the benefits vary widely. PRB has led the way in insuring clients' lives, families, businesses and health since 1972. Today, PRB is a highly respected leader in the insurance industry.

FINANCIAL STRATEGIES:

PRB knows that the common denominator in financial planning is creating the financial strategy and executing the actual program that is right for your valued clients. It takes time, care, knowledge and commitment – hallmarks of PRB's leadership in financial decision making.
